

A very warm welcome to the Healing Cancer Study Support Group

Below is our Facebook group banner, and this is the direct link/ URL to the private study support group.

You may want to bookmark the group in your browser's favourites list

The 21k+ member private group uses the featured posts tab so be sure to check that out. And don't forget to look at the media library and files library in the Facebook group itself.

The most important page to bookmark is the group's
A-Z directory of conversation threads & files.

These A-Z directory links only work for group members signed into Facebook.

The new MHC blog has regular healing cancer-related posts that you may find helpful. You can read and subscribe at 1:1 Individual Well-Researched Off-label and Supplement Protocol Consults.

This is something I do not offer my group members.
However, there is another FB group whose leader offers this service.

About Abbey Mitchell

Founder of My Healing Community, Co-creator of the Breast Cancer Pathways Worksheet and Lead Admin and Founder of The Healing Cancer Study Support Group.

Hi, I'm an Aussie living a simple life in the bush just 5 minutes from the sea on the beautiful mid-north coast between Sydney and Brisbane. The area I live in is called Valla, NSW.

I was diagnosed with lobular breast cancer in 2014 at the age of 43 and discovered the breast cancer had metastasised to about 9 places in my bones 2017. It's now 2023 and I am feeling better physically, mentally and emotionally than I have in my entire life. I still visit my oncologist every 3 months to discuss my pathology reports and have a CT/Bone scan at least once a year but so far all we have to discuss is healing or slight ups and downs of my tumor markers that have remained in the normal range since 2018.

If you are interested to learn more about my personal healing journey you can read my messy old blog and listen to a couple of interviews I've given at www.healingbreastcancer.info
